

Upcoming Quality Standards

Quality standards outline for clinicians and patients what quality care looks like. They focus on conditions where there are large variations in how care is delivered, or where there are gaps between the care provided in Ontario and the care patients should receive.

Below is a list of quality standards that are currently in development.

For more information, contact QualityStandards@HQOntario.ca.

Title	Status
Heavy Menstrual Bleeding: Care for adults and adolescents of reproductive age	In Development
Hip Fractures: Care for people with fragility fractures	In Development
Diabetic Foot Ulcer: Care for patients in all settings	In Development
Venous Leg Ulcers: Care for patients in all settings	In Development
Pressure Injuries: Care for patients in all settings	In Development
Vaginal Birth After Caesarean: Care for people who have had a caesarean birth and are planning their next birth	In Development
Dementia Care in the Community: Care for people in community	In Development
Opioid Use Disorder: Care for adults and adolescents	In Development

Title	Status
Opioid Prescribing for Pain: Care for adults	In Development
Schizophrenia in Community: Care for people in community	In Development
Palliative Care: Care for adults	In Development
Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD): Care for adults	In Development
Osteoarthritis: Care for adults	In Development
Heart Failure: Care for adults	Starting Soon
Lower Back Pain: Care for adults	Starting Soon